Friends of Cranleigh Choral Society

2010/2011

For over 100 years Cranleigh Choral Society has provided a wealth of music to the people of Cranleigh and its surrounding villages.

Today the society provides an opportunity for local people to take part in high-level music making at the centre of the Cranleigh community. Members meet for rehearsals on Monday evenings in term time and the society normally presents three concerts a year in the village. In the past, these have included a successful joint performance in Guildford Cathedral, Christmas concerts in our beautiful St. Nicolas' Church and ever popular summer concerts in the village hall. It is a wonderful opportunity for people to meet and become part of a society of music enthusiasts both in and out of rehearsals.

We are very fortunate to have Marcus Pashley as our Musical Director.

In these increasingly difficult times for all in the performing arts, it is crucial that we find ways to keep our financial situation healthy. The main proportion of our revenue is self-generated. Members' subscriptions cover hire of rehearsal venues, rehearsal accompanists and similar expenses, but individual donations and sponsorship form a vital part of the additional income needed to reduce the losses we inevitably make in staging performances with professional orchestras and soloists.

Supporting Cranleigh Choral Society

If you would like to become more involved with Cranleigh Choral Society and help support a 100-year tradition of choral singing then we hope you will want to become a Friend.

For a minimum donation of £50 per individual per annum you can join the Friends and receive:

- ◆ Three concert tickets per year (one per concert)
- ◆ A free glass of wine at each concert
- ◆ A regular newsletter about the society
- ◆ acknowledgment in concert programmes *
- ◆ invitations to post-concert receptions *
- ◆ invitations to social events

* for concerts promoted by the choir
